

The Alliance for International Education

will hold its eleventh conference:

Rethinking International Education: Values and Relevance

18 – 20 October, 2019

at the International School of Geneva, Switzerland, La Grande Boissière campus, by kind invitation of the school

Conference registration will open in October 2018, including – for a designated period – discounted conference fees and submission of proposals for presentations.

Visit the AIE website: www.intedalliance.org